GN-1. Plaintiff (name): Nebiat B. Seyoum alleges that defendant (name): Kaiser Foundation Health Plan, Inc.; Kaiser Foundation Hospitals; Southern California Permanente Medical Group; Hong Phuc Pham, M.D.; and Does 1 _____ to 100, inclusive.

was the legal (proximate) cause of damages to plaintiff. By the following acts or omissions to act, defendant negligently caused the damage to plaintiff on (date): 2011 to present at (place): Los Angeles and Orange County, California

(description of reasons for liability):

1. Plaintiff, Nebiat B. Seyoum, is informed, believes and hereupon alleges that defendants, Kaiser Foundation Health Plan, Inc., Kaiser Foundation Hospitals, and Southern California Permanente Medical Group, were, at all times, doing business in the State of California. At all times relevant, these defendants, and Does 1 to 100, inclusive, were and are engaged in the owning, operating, maintaining and managing medical, surgical, hospital, diagnostic, and nursing care to the general public, for compensation in the State of California, and that all employees and duly authorized agents were all acting within the course and scope of their employment and agency and their conduct was ratified by defendants, and each of them, and Does 1 to 100, inclusive. Further, these defendants selected and assigned physicians and other healthcare providers to care for and treat plaintiff, and, through words and actions, held those individuals out as agents or employees, knowing and expecting that plaintiff would rely on those actions and words. Those individuals were and are ostensible agents of these defendants.

2. Plaintiff, Nebiat B. Seyoum, was informed, believes and hereby alleges that defendant, Hong Phuc Pham, M.D., and Does 1 to 100, inclusive, and each of them, held themselves out to the general public and to the plaintiff as skilled professionals in the science of medicine, radiology, internal medicine, oncology, hospital care, nursing care and other related care, and that said defendants, and each of them, held themselves out to the general public and to plaintiff as possessing that degree of knowledge and skill customarily possessed and exercised by other physicians, surgeons, nurses, and healthcare providers engaged in the same or similar locality as that of defendants, and each of them.

SHORT TITLE: Nebiat B. Seyoum, et al., Plaintiffs, v. Kaiser Foundation
Health Plan, Inc., et al., Defendants.

CASE NUMBER:

ATTACHMENT (Number): ONE

(This Attachment may be used with any Judicial Council form.)

3. Plaintiff contends that defendants, Kaiser Foundation Health Plan, Inc., Kaiser Foundation Hospitals, and Southern California Permanente Medical Group, and Hon Phuc Pham, M.D., and Does 1 to 100, inclusive, were negligent, careless and unskillful with regard to their failure to timely diagnose plaintiff as suffering from pancreatic cancer. Specifically, several years prior to August 8, 2011, plaintiff had presented with numerous symptoms, including pain, that were consistent with a potential diagnosis of pancreatic cancer but no testing or treatment was undertaken to determine whether plaintiff was suffering from pancreatic cancer. On or about August 8, 2011, plaintiff underwent an MRI scan to rule out a liver mass performed by Hong Phuc Pham, M.D., Dr. Pham negligently determined that there was no evidence of cancer in the pancreas by stating that there was no mass or ductile dilations. Plaintiff was ultimately diagnosed with pancreatic cancer approximately one year before August of 2012. Due to the significance of the significance in delay of diagnosis, plaintiff's cancer was allowed to grow and spread to other parts of the body, depriving plaintiff of earlier treatments and the potential for cure. Further, these defendants, and each of them, have been negligent and careless with regard to her management for her pancreatic cancer which has caused additional damage both from a physical and emotional standpoint.

4. As a result of such legal negligence of defendants, and each of them, plaintiff has been injured in her health, strength and activity, suffered severe physical and emotional injury, and has a poor prognosis as a result of the late diagnosis of cancer. She will be seeking both general and special damages according to proof.

5. Plaintiff is and was excusably ignorant of the negligence of the defendants and the cause of her injuries alleged herein due to the actions of each of the defendants who misled plaintiff in believing that no negligence occurred. Plaintiff's lack of medical records and lack of any training or experience in medicine and the failure of defendants, and each of them, to fulfill their fiduciary obligations of disclosure to plaintiff and plaintiff's ignorance of the defendants' negligent acts. Plaintiff first suspected that the conduct of the defendants, and each of them, may have fallen below the standard of care occurred in 2013 when plaintiff first consulted with her present counsel.

INSTRUCTIONS ON HOW TO COMPLETE THE COVER SHEET

CM-010

To Plaintiffs and Others Filing First Papers. If you are filing a first paper (for example, a complaint) in a civil case, you must complete and file, along with your first paper, the Civil Case Cover Sheet contained on page 1. This information will be used to compile statistics about the types and numbers of cases filed. You must complete items 1 through 6 on the sheet. In item 1, you must check one box for the case type that best describes the case. If the case fits both a general and a more specific type of case listed in item 1, check the more specific one. If the case has multiple causes of action, check the box that best indicates the primary cause of action. To assist you in completing the sheet, examples of the cases that belong under each case type in item 1 are provided below. A cover sheet must be filed only with your initial paper. Failure to file a cover sheet with the first paper filed in a civil case may subject a party, its counsel, or both to sanctions under rules 2.30 and 3.220 of the California Rules of Court.

To Parties in Rule 3.740 Collections Cases. A "collections case" under rule 3.740 is defined as an action for recovery of money owed in a sum stated to be certain that is not more than $25,000, exclusive of interest and attorney's fees, arising from a transaction in which property, services, or money was acquired on credit. A collections case does not include an action seeking the following: (1) tort damages, (2) punitive damages, (3) recovery of real property, (4) recovery of personal property, or (5) a prejudgment writ of attachment. The identification of a case as a rule 3.740 collections case on this form means that it will be exempt from the general time-for-service requirements and case management rules, unless a defendant files a responsive pleading. A rule 3.740 collections case will be subject to the requirements for service and obtaining a judgment in rule 3.740.

To Parties in Complex Cases. In complex cases only, parties must also use the Civil Case Cover Sheet to designate whether the case is complex. If a plaintiff believes the case is complex under rule 3.400 of the California Rules of Court, this must be indicated by completing the appropriate boxes in items 1 and 2. If a plaintiff designates a case as complex, the cover sheet must be served with the complaint on all parties to the action. A defendant may file and serve no later than the time of its first appearance a joinder in the plaintiff's designation, a counter-designation that the case is not complex, or, if the plaintiff has made no designation, a designation that the case is complex.
