

1 2. Plaintiffs are informed and believe and thereon allege that defendants GENEVA
 2 GREGORIO BUAN ("BUAN"), and DOES 41 through 100, and each of them were, at all times
 3 herein mentioned, residents of the State of California and were managers, officers, supervisors,
 4 managing agents and/or employees of KAISER PERMANENTE and each of them. Plaintiffs 5 further allege that at all times herein mentioned, defendants DOES 41 through 100, were in the 6 chain of command over the plaintiffs and had sufficient actual or reasonably perceived power or 7 control or direction in the plaintiffs' work environment to significantly affect the plaintiffs'
 8 employment status.

9 3. The true names or capacities, whether individual, corporate, associate or 10 otherwise, of defendants DOES 1 through 100, inclusive, are unknown to plaintiffs and 11 therefore each plaintiff sues these defendants by such fictitious names. Plaintiffs will amend 12 this complaint to allege their true names and capacities when ascertained. Plaintiffs are 13 informed and believe and based thereon allege that each of these fictitiously named defendants 14 is responsible in some manner for the occurrences herein alleged and that plaintiffs' damages as 15 herein alleged were proximately caused by their conduct.

16 4. Plaintiffs are informed and believe and thereon allege that each of the defendants, 17 including the fictitiously named defendants, was the agent and employee of each of the 18 remaining defendants and in doing some of the things hereinafter alleged, was acting within the 19 scope and course of such agency. Plaintiffs further allege that the acts and conduct of said 20 defendants, as hereinafter alleged, which were intentional or harassing were not related to 21 personnel actions and were neither a risk, an incident, nor a normal part of the plaintiffs'
 22 employment.

23 5. During all relevant times mentioned herein, Plaintiff worked as a Licensed 24 Vocational Nurse ("LVN") at KAISER in the Hollywood medical facility where she worked in 25 the Family Medicine Department. Plaintiff suffered from a foot injury, she had diabetes and a 26 stress and anxiety disorder. These conditions impaired various daily life activities and made 27 such daily life activities more difficult. Plaintiff was a disabled employee as defined by the 28 California Fair Employment and Housing Act.

09/22/2017

1 6. In March of 2015, Plaintiff hurt her foot, which was ultimately diagnosed as 2 plantars faciitis and plaintiff had problems with her feet as a result of her diabetes. Plaintiff had 3 various evaluations from her treating physicians and plaintiff timely reported all such instances
 4 of missed work. Plaintiff reported the doctors orders for leave immediately as she received
 5 them. Plaintiff had several extensions of leave by her doctors and it took several appointments
 6 to get a diagnosis. Plaintiff's supervisor and department director BUAN gave plaintiff a Level
 7 one written discipline for calling out on short notice. BUAN and KAISER had a policy that 8 LVN's must call out more than 24 hours in advance if they are going to be sick or need medical 9 leave. This policy as applied is per se discrimination for disabled employees and for employees
 10 on intermittent FMLA who don't know, nor can they plan, when they will have difficulty
 11 because of their disability. Plaintiff provided the Kaiser medical forms documenting her 12 treatment and leave ordered by her doctored. That notwithstanding KAISER and BUAN took 13 negative employment actions again plaintiff.

14 7. Plaintiff was also advised by a senior RN that she would get a bonus because of the 15 short call out and in fact they have a special code "SCL" for these short call instances. This 16 caused much stress for plaintiff. Plaintiff had diabetes and she was concerned as she often 17 needed to treat with he doctors for her disabling condition. BUAN wrote on the disciplinary 18 notice that they would revisit the matter in two months. As such, Plaintiff approached, Victor, 19 who was plaintiff's supervisor and the assistant to BUAN, and asks him about the prior 20 discipline that he and BUAN had initiated. Victor told plaintiff that her attendance was fine, and 21 that he would remove the disiplinary action. However, BUAN interceded and advised Plaintiff 22 that the discipline would remain in place for the next year and would be held against her for any 23 progression of discipline that may occur. This did not alleviate plaintiff's stress as there did not 24 seem to be any effort to accommodate plaintiff's medical condition.

25 8. Then in December of 2015, Plaintiff's incilin pump stopped working and 26 plaintiff was put in the hospital for ketoacidosis. Doctors had plaintiff on medical leave for a 27 week. At that time her doctors were concerned about plaintiff's continued medical care as 28 Plaintiff described the stress that her employer created when she had to take medical leave of

09/22/2017

1 absence. Accordingly, the doctors put plaintiff on intermittent FMLA, and the paperwork
 2 described 4 times a month eight hours each occurrence. This was for her diabetes and stress and 3 anxiety as she was treating with her doctors for stress, anxiety and depression as well. As a 4 result, BUAN began requiring extra documentation for doctors appointments and then limiting 5 the time when appointments occur. Plaintiff complained as she didn't necessarily know how 6 long appointments would take and she was treating at Kaiser and often delayed by the doctors.
 7 Plaintiff could not insure that her appointments would fit withing the small window of time
 8 allocated by BUAN. Again, this caused further stress each time plaintiff needed to see her 9 doctor. BUAN also would ask plaintiff whether she was treating for psych. or for her diabetes.
 10 This made plaintiff uncomfortable as BUAN was well aware that plaintiff had FMLA for psych 11 and Diabetes. That notwithstanding, plaintiff was required to tell BUAN with whom she was 12 treating and thus BUAN would know where plaintiff was within the KAISER facility at all 13 times.

14 9. Plaintiff advised BUAN on several occasions that the harassment made her 15 uncomfortable. Evidently other workers experienced the same and the union had an all 16 department meeting to address the employees' complaints. The memorandum created for that 17 meeting included complaints regarding extra documentation to prove doctors appointments, 18 limiting time for appointments, mandating return from doctors appointments at specific times, 19 employees feeling retaliation and uncomfortable dealing with BUAN, and an "environment of 20 fear" under her management. At the meeting various employees voiced their concerns.
 21 However, after the meeting, Plaintiff was called into BUAN's office. BUAN berated plaintiff
 22 for agreeing with the other employees. BUAN was making excuses and asserted that employees 23 left her department because they lived too far away. Plaintiff stated in the meeting that if 24 employees liked to work in the department and they didn't feel oppressed it didn't matter how far
 25 away they lived. Plaintiff listened to BUAN after the meeting and did not voice any further 26 opposition at that time. Despite the Union meeting the harassment and discriminatory conduct 27 continued.

28 ///

09/22/2017

1 10. In August, Plaintiff had further health problems including some physical 2 manifestations of her anxiety, which included abdominal problems, dermatological problems, and 3 hives. Plaintiff was also having body aches in her neck, shoulders, and back. Plaintiff's
 4 treating Doctors (Kaiser doctors), were aware of oppressive management Plaintiff experienced.
 5 They increased plaintiff's FMLA to eight times a month to help Plaintiff get her medical 6 treatment. Immediately after the increase in FMLA time, plaintiff had a coworker that began
 7 harassing her in front BUAN and Victor, and was calling plaintiff "psycho" and "psychotic."
 8 This made plaintiff very upset as only BUAN and Victor knew about plaintiff's psychological 9 condition and treatment and they obviously were telling other employees.

10 11. The day plaintiff was abused by her co-worker, Plaintiff communicated to Plaintiff
 11 and wrote a text to Victor and BUAN and advised that she can't believe they would do nothing 12 while the co-worker, who made disparaging remarks about her psychological condition and 13 advised Victor and BUAN that she was going to the union and reporting the entire matter.
 14 Plaintiff did report the harassment to the Union and the Union representative told plaintiff to tell 15 Felicia, about the meeting and that she would be entitled to union representation at meeting also.
 16 The next week BUAN called Plaintiff into her office and told her that Felicia was bringing a 17 harassment complaint with KAISER for calling her about the meeting. Maria explained to 18 BUAN she had Felicia's phone number from group texts that all the employees engaged in. This 19 was clearly retaliation and plaintiff reasonable believes all such retaliation was orchestrated by 20 BUAN. BUAN then told Plaintiff that she had forwarded the matter on to HR who will be 21 contacting her. Plaintiff at that time had also complained to the Kaiser Physician in the 22 department hoping that the doctor would effectuate some change as the Doctors were the 23 managing partners of the organization. Moreover, the treating doctors were also well aware of 24 the mistreatment plaintiff was experiencing.

25 12. When the KAISER HR contacted Plaintiff, as BUAN had advised, Plaintiff thought
 26 HR would be investigating the harassment by Felicia that occurred in front of Victor and Buan.
 27 Instead, HR start spoke to her about tardies that they asserted had occurred 60 days previously in 28 July. The three tardies concerned days when Plaintiff allegedly was two minutes, three minutes

09/22/2017

1 and eight minutes late. Plaintiff did not believe she was late as Plaintiff often arrived early and 2 stayed late. Clearly this was further retaliation by BUAN and KAISER. Plaintiff explained that 3 KAISER has taken much more time from her because of their oppressive payroll policies.
 4 KAISER's policy was to take time away from employees and round to the nearest hour if they 5 clocked in early or clocked out late. The policy considered a 6 minute window that if an 6 employee clocked in early KAISER adjusted up to the beginning of the shift and if they clock
 7 out late within 6 minutes KAISER adjust took away the time and considered it the top of the 8 hour. So KAISER on a regular basis and by its own policy takes time away from its employee 9 but would like to use a two minute and three minute tardy as a pretextual means to take action
 10 (termination in this case) against plaintiff. Plaintiff makes approximately 46 cents a minute.
 11 The time is diminimus and clearly a pretextual move to terminate Plaintiff right on the heels of 12 her complaining of unlawful harassment because of her disability. All such negative
 13 employment action occurred within a week. Immediately after HR spoke to plaintiff the union
 14 contacted Plaintiff and advised her that KAISER intended to terminate her employment.

15 13. As a result of these events plaintiff experienced an anxiety attack and advised
 16 BUAN that she would be out the rest of the day on FMLA as she needed medical attention.
 17 Upon seeing her Doctor plaintiff was put on medical leave for six weeks. Plaintiff filed a claim 18 against BUAN with Dept of Industrial Relations for retaliation.

19 14. On September 28, 2017, plaintiff spoke with a union representative named,
 20 Edwin, who set up a meeting to speak with the HR representative Craig. At that meeting Craig
 21 tells Plaintiff that he will release her to be transferred to another Kaiser facility in Baldwin Park
 22 and that he was not going to pursue termination. However, when plaintiff returned from her
 23 leave it was a Monday, October 17, 2017. On Wednesday, BUAN advised plaintiff to get find a
 24 union representative because BUAN was readdressing the tardy issue. Plaintiff advised BUAN
 25 that the issue was handled through HR. That notwithstanding, BUAN demanded that the 26 meeting take place on Friday October 21, 2016. Plaintiff could not communicate with her union 27 representative and could not get a hold of Edwin at that time. BUAN demanded that the 28 meeting go forward anyway. At the meeting Plaintiff learned that BUAN demanded plaintiff's

09/22/2017

1 termination despite her meeting with the union and the HR representative that had resolved the 2 entire matter. The instant plaintiff returned to work from her medical disability leave for her
3 stress and anxiety, BUAN effectuated plaintiff termination. BUAN's conduct amounted to 4 continuous harassment, discrimination and retaliation because of plaintiff's disability starting
5 with plaintiff's foot injury and continuing through her termination. All such conduct escalated
6 into further discrimination and harassment. See Roby v. McKesson Corp., 47 Cal. 4th 686 7 (2009).

8 FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION
9 AGAINST DEFENDANT KAISER;
10 AND DOES 1 THROUGH 40 AND EACH OF THEM
11 (DISCRIMINATION BASED ON DISABILITY)

12 15. Plaintiffs incorporate the allegations set forth in paragraphs 1 through 25 as if set
13 forth in full herein.

14 16. At all times herein mentioned Government Code §§12940 et seq. were in full 15 force and effect and were binding on defendants KAISER, and DOES 1 through 40 and each of 16 them. These sections require defendants, and each of them, to refrain from discriminating 17 against a disabled employee who is fully qualified and able to perform the functions of an 18 employment position.

19 17. Plaintiff, who were both disabled individual, was qualified to perform the duties 20 of an employment position with KAISER with, or without, reasonable accommodation, and was 21 subjected to adverse employment actions by KAISER because of her disability. Said acts and 22 conduct of KAISER, as have been more fully set forth above, were on the basis of plaintiffs'
23 disability or, on account of the fact that plaintiff was regarded as disabled by defendant, or on 24 account of the fact that plaintiff had a record or history of a disability which was known to 25 KAISER. Said conduct thus constituted violations of Government Code § 12940 et seq.

26 18. Administrative charges have been filed on behalf of MARIA SALGADO with 27 the California Department of Fair Employment and Housing (DFEH) pursuant to Section 12960
28 of the Government Code on September 17, 2017, substantially alleging the acts and conduct as

09/22/2017

1 hereinabove described. DFEH issued "Right to Sue" notices on September 17, 2017. (True
2 and correct copies of same are attached hereto as Exhibits "1" and "2" respectively).

3 19. As a result of the aforesaid unlawful acts of said defendants and each of them,
4 plaintiffs have lost income and benefits in amounts to be proven at time of trial. Plaintiffs claim
5 such amounts as damages together with prejudgment interest pursuant to California Civil Code
6 § 3287 and/or any other provision of law providing for prejudgment interest.

7 20. As a result of the aforesaid unlawful acts of said defendants and each of them,
8 plaintiffs have been personally humiliated and have become mentally upset, distressed and 9 aggravated. Plaintiffs claim general damages for such mental distress and aggravation in an 10 amount to be proven at time of trial.

11 21. As a further result of the said acts of the said defendants and each of them, 12 plaintiffs may employ medical practitioners and physicians for care and may incur medical and 13 incidental expenses which will be shown according to proof.

14 22. The aforesaid acts directed toward the plaintiffs were carried out by managerial
15 employees, officers, and directors and were directed and ratified by defendants KAISER with a 16 conscious disregard of plaintiffs' rights and with the intent to vex, injure, and annoy the 17 plaintiffs, such as to constitute oppression, fraud or malice under California Civil Code § 3294, 18 entitling the plaintiffs to punitive damages in a sum which is an amount appropriate to punish 19 and set an example of KAISER.

20 SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION

21 AGAINST DEFENDANT KAISER;

22 AND DOES 1 THROUGH 40 AND EACH OF THEM

23 FAILURE TO PROVIDE REASONABLE ACCOMMODATIONS

24 [VIOLATION OF GOVERNMENT CODE §12940(m)]

25 23. Plaintiff incorporates the allegations set forth in paragraphs 1 through 22 as if set
26 forth in full herein.

27 24. During the period of plaintiff's employment with KAISER Government Code
28 §12926.1(a), (e) and §12940(m), were in full force and effect and were binding on KAISER.

09/22/2017

1 This section provides, in pertinent part, that it is an unlawful employment practice for an
2 employer to fail to make reasonable accommodation for the known physical or mental disability
3 of an employee. These subsections impose a continuing mandatory duty upon employers to 4 engage in an informal, "interactive process" in order to attempt to identify a reasonable 5 accommodation so as to allow a disabled employee to continue working.

6 25. As alleged above, KAISER violated these subsections by failing to actively
7 engage in the interactive process in order to determine a reasonable accommodation for plaintiff.
8 Among other things plaintiff was terminated as she returned from medical leave and was never 9 afforded such accommodation as she was not actually allowed to return to work. Moreover,
10 plaintiff needed certain accommodations to treat with her doctors which defendants disrupted 11 due to unreasonable requirements just to get to the doctor, and plaintiff was disciplined when 12 she sought medical leave to treat for her injury to her feet.

13 26. The unlawful employment practices on the part of defendants KAISER, and 14 DOES 1 through 40 and each of them, were a substantial factor in causing those damages and 15 injuries to plaintiff as set forth by re-allegation of paragraphs 19 through 22 (in paragraph 35).

16 THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION

17 AGAINST DEFENDANT KAISER

18 AND DOES 1 THROUGH 40 AND EACH OF THEM

19 FAILURE TO ENGAGE IN THE INTERACTIVE PROCESS

20 [VIOLATION OF GOVERNMENT CODE §12940(n)]

21 27. Plaintiff incorporates the allegations set forth in paragraphs 1 through 26 as if set
22 forth in full herein.

23 28. During the period of plaintiff's employment with KAISER Government Code
24 §12926.1(a), (e) and §§12940(m) & (n), were in full force and effect and were binding on 25 KAISER. Government Code § 12940, subdivision (n), provides, in pertinent part, that it is an 26 unlawful employment practice for an employer to fail to engage in a timely, good faith, 27 interactive process with the employee to determine effective, reasonable accommodation(s) for 28 the employee's known physical or mental disability. This subsection imposes a continuing

09/22/2017

1 mandatory duty upon employers to engage in an informal, "interactive process" in order to 2 attempt to identify a reasonable accommodation so as to allow a disabled employee to continue 3 working.

4 29. As alleged above, KAISER violated these subsections by failing to actively
5 engage in the interactive process in order to determine a reasonable accommodation for plaintiff.

6 30. The unlawful employment practices on the part of defendant KAISER, and each
7 of them, were a substantial factor in causing those damages and injuries to plaintiff as set forth 8 by allegation of paragraphs 19 through 22 (in paragraph 27).

9 FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION
10 AGAINST DEFENDANT KAISER; XANTOS
11 AND DOES 1 THROUGH 40 AND EACH OF THEM
12 [RETALIATION]

13 31. Plaintiff incorporates the allegations set forth in paragraphs 1 through 30 as if set
14 forth in full herein.

15 32. At all times herein mentioned Government Code § 12940(h) was in full force and 16 effect and was binding on KAISER as well as supervisors and managers employed by KAISER.
17 These sections require defendant KAISER, and DOES 1 through 40, and each of them, to refrain 18 from retaliating against an employee for having engaged in an activity that is protected under the 19 FEHA. Flait v. North American Watch Corp. (1992) 3 Cal.App.4th 467, 476. Plaintiff further
20 alleges that KAISER was aware of plaintiff's disability and became aware the difficulties
21 plaintiff was having. KAISER put into action the events that lead to negative employment
22 actions because plaintiff was asserting her rights under FEHA and requesting reasonable 23 accommodations. Reeves v. Safeway Stores Inc. (2004) 121 Cal.App. 4th 95, 113.

24 33. Plaintiff alleges that the aforesaid discrimination, failure to accommodate, and 25 adverse employment actions were in retaliation for, and were motivated by, plaintiffs having 26 engaged in the protected activity of asserting rights as disabled individuals which are protected
27 under the FEHA.

28 ///

09/22/2017

1 34. The said acts and conduct constituting retaliation by defendants toward plaintiffs 2 were not normal business or personnel management decisions that were necessary to the 3 performance of a manager's or supervisor's job.

4 35. The aforesaid actions and conduct of KAISER, and DOES 1 through 40 and each
5 of them thereby constituted Retaliation toward plaintiff and were in violation of California
6 Government Code §12940(h).

7 36. As a direct and proximate result of the conduct of said defendants, as aforesaid,
8 plaintiff has suffered those injuries and damages set forth by re-allegation of paragraphs 31 9 through 34 (in paragraph 43).

10 FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION
11 AGAINST DEFENDANT KAISER and BUAN
12 AND DOES 1 THROUGH 100 AND EACH OF THEM
13 (HARASSMENT - Gov't Code §12940(j))

14 37. Plaintiff incorporates the allegations set forth in paragraphs 1 through 36 as if set
15 forth in full herein.

16 38. During the period of Plaintiff's employment with defendants, Government Code 17 §12926.1(j)(1) and (3), were in full force and effect and were binding on said Defendants. These 18 subsections impose a continuing mandatory duty upon employers, managers, supervisors and 19 employees not to harass employees because of a protected class including but not limited to 20 disability.

21 39. As alleged above, defendants violated these subsections by otherwise engaging in 22 conduct that was subjectively and objectively harassing to plaintiff who made defendants aware 23 that such conduct was offensive to him. However, defendants on multiple occasions directed 24 such offensive conduct towards plaintiff. Such conduct created a hostile work environment.
25 Roby v. McKesson (2009) 47 Cal. 4th 686,

26 40. The unlawful employment practices on the part of Defendants and each of them, 27 were a substantial factor in causing those damages and injuries to Plaintiff as set forth by 28 allegation of paragraphs 19 through 22 (in paragraph 37).

1 WHEREFORE, plaintiff MARIA SALGADO seeks judgment against defendants

2 KAISER:

3 1. All economic damages, actual, consequential and incidental losses, including but 4 not limited to loss of income and benefits, according to proof, together with prejudgment
5 interest pursuant to California Civil Code § 3287 and/or § 3288;

6 2. General damages for emotional distress and mental suffering in a sum according 7 to proof;

8 3. Treble damages pertaining to a lawsuit brought because of disability. Civil Code
9 §3345

10 4. Exemplary and punitive damages in a sum appropriate to punish said defendants 11 and set an example for others;

12 5. Attorneys' fees and costs of suit pursuant to Government Code §12965(b);

13 6. Such other and further relief as the Court may deem proper.

NOTICE

- Plaintiff must file this cover sheet with the first paper filed in the action or proceeding (except small claims cases or cases filed under the Probate Code, Family Code, or Welfare and Institutions Code). (Cal. Rules of Court, rule 3.220.) Failure to file may result in sanctions.
- File this cover sheet in addition to any cover sheet required by local court rule.
- If this case is complex under rule 3.400 et seq. of the California Rules of Court, you must serve a copy of this cover sheet on all other parties to the action or proceeding.
- Unless this is a collections case under rule 3.740 or a complex case, this cover sheet will be used for statistical purposes only.

INSTRUCTIONS ON HOW TO COMPLETE THE COVER SHEET

To Plaintiffs and Others Filing First Papers. If you are filing a first paper (for example, a complaint) in a civil case, you must complete and file, along with your first paper, the Civil Case Cover Sheet contained on page 1. This information will be used to compile statistics about the types and numbers of cases filed. You must complete items 1 through 6 on the sheet. In item 1, you must check one box for the case type that best describes the case. If the case fits both a general and a more specific type of case listed in item 1, check the more specific one. If the case has multiple causes of action, check the box that best indicates the primary cause of action. To assist you in completing the sheet, examples of the cases that belong under each case type in item 1 are provided below. A cover sheet must be filed only with your initial paper. Failure to file a cover sheet with the first paper filed in a civil case may subject a party, its counsel, or both to sanctions under rules 2.30 and 3.220 of the California Rules of Court.

To Parties In Rule 3.740 Collections Cases. A "collections case" under rule 3.740 is defined as an action for recovery of money owed in a sum stated to be certain that is not more than $25,000, exclusive of interest and attorney's fees, arising from a transaction in which property, services, or money was acquired on credit. A collections case does not include an action seeking the following: (1) tort damages, (2) punitive damages, (3) recovery of real property, (4) recovery of personal property, or (5) a prejudgment writ of attachment. The identification of a case as a rule 3.740 collections case on this form means that it will be exempt from the general time-for-service requirements and case management rules, unless a defendant files a responsive pleading. A rule 3.740 collections case will be subject to the requirements for service and obtaining a judgment in rule 3.740.

To Parties In Complex Cases. In complex cases only, parties must also use the Civil Case Cover Sheet to designate whether the case is complex. If a plaintiff believes the case is complex under rule 3.400 of the California Rules of Court, this must be indicated by completing the appropriate boxes in items 1 and 2. If a plaintiff designates a case as complex, the cover sheet must be served with the complaint on all parties to the action. A defendant may file and serve no later than the time of its first appearance a joinder in the plaintiff's designation, a counter-designation that the case is not complex, or, if the plaintiff has made no designation, a designation that the case is complex.
